

Recovery Iowa Announcement
November 2007

Recovery is POSSIBLE, IMPORTANT, and a NEW BEGINNING

Recovery Iowa Debuts the News and Issues Blog

The new Recovery Iowa News and Issues Blog allows us to post news and events, plus, share articles, book reviews, ideas, issues, and more, with you, the reader.

Readers may leave comments on blog postings, post local news and event information, and also share ideas and views.

We believe this new format will keep all of us in the recovery community better informed and connected.

Visit the blog site at <http://blog.recoveryiowa.org/> and let us know what topics you'd like to see covered or share your comments.

We look forward to hearing from you.
