

Iowa Celebrates
22nd Annual National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month with Adventure!

On September 18, 2011, Adventureland Amusement Park in Altoona will be the site for this year's statewide Recovery Month event that celebrates the hard work of individuals and their families in recovery. Those in attendance can enjoy a fun day of rides, shows and attractions -- with a special presentation at 1:00 p.m. by notable guests. In addition, each participant who attends the special presentation will receive Adventureland Fun Money that can be used to purchase refreshments in the park.

FREE TICKETS: A limited number of free tickets are available for individuals in recovery and for their spouses and children or, if age 18 or younger, for their parents. To request free tickets, interested licensed treatment programs must complete the information below and email or fax their ticket request to Training Resources at fax (515) 309-3317 or rhonda@trainingresources.org by August 1, 2011.

The free tickets will be divided among interested programs. Once the free tickets are distributed, programs may purchase additional tickets at the special discounted rate of $12.72 for Access to Recovery clients and staff. Information will be coming soon about purchasing tickets.

Tickets must be secured in advance of the event so plan ahead!
Discounted tickets will not be available at Adventureland on September 18.
Questions, please call Training Resources at (515) 309-3315.
